Sermon Outline

Built on grace

Anna Hoole

Matthew 18:15-35

How will we go down in history?

Dealing with disputes (v15-20)

1. Go and point out their fault
2. Bring one or two others along
3. Tell it to the church
4. Treat them as a [non-believer] or tax collector

“For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.” (v20)

The best example of conflict resolution

Forgiveness in a feud (v21-35)

“Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?” (v21)

“Not seven times, but seventy-seven times” (v22)

The forgiveness offered to us

The forgiveness expected of us

What would it look like for our church to be built on grace?

My next step in response to God's Word today is...

Parish Council Update

March

Bible: 1 Timothy 5:17-18. Discussion around caring for our staff members who are honorary (unpaid) and our desire as a church to be able to fund these positions financially in the future.

Building news: Building fund balance: $408,139

We now have our Construction Certificate! And it is exciting that we have the funds to begin a lot of the stage 1 development, including fencing, carpark access, playground, landscaping, War memorial hall air conditioning and old hall renovation. We will need to raise a further $185,000 to complete all work, including the new toilet block.

Finance: We have recently farewelled two full time staff members - David Yue and Al James.

This has reduced the financial stress on our budget at the moment, but we are still behind due to a very large decrease in giving (more so since Church services have been suspended). We would appreciate your prayers for this situation which may become more serious in the months to come as more people lose work and income.

Coronavirus: signage and procedures were discussed for the coming months. (Update: More has been developed since this meeting. All church ministries and tenants are now off site.)

Mission: Prayer and discussion of support for Ningjia in her university ministry at Macquarie.
